DISPOSITION:

20 YEARS OF SERVICE AWARD TO NORMA KULA

Norma began her career with Monroe County in 1984. She has received many promotions throughout the years, ranging from Library Assistant Trainee to her current position of Director of Libraries.

Prior to her position as Director of Libraries, she served on the Employee Relations Committee and the Employee Grievance Council. Since becoming the Director of Libraries, Norma's assignments have included the complete revision of the library policy, responsibility for long-range planning, grant writing, including a $44,000.00 Gates Library Foundation Grant and the Annual State Aid to Libraries Grant, which comprises approximately 10% of the total library budget.

Norma has established a solid foundation of mutual respect with the Library Advisory Board. Through her participation over the past several years, they have come to rely on her input and expertise in their endeavors. She also works well with the Friends of the Library groups across the system as well. She has maintained a good working relationship with her supervisors and peers, as well as her co-workers. She is known and respected in County Government and also in her community.

Norma is a true professional librarian. We are happy to be here today to present this Years of Service Award to her and hope to have many more years of her great service to the citizens of Monroe County.
